

Media information: Cambridge International AS & A Level – June 2019 exam series

Cambridge International AS & A Level is an international education programme typically for 16 to 19 year olds. The syllabuses develop a deep understanding of subjects, as well as independent learning and constructive thinking skills which are valued by universities.

Cambridge International AS & A Level at a glance

- Cambridge International AS & A Level qualifications are accepted and recognised by universities worldwide, including all UK universities and over 600 US universities.
- Cambridge International AS Level is typically a one-year course, and Cambridge International A Level is typically a two-year course.
- Some courses can be started as a Cambridge International AS Level and extended to a Cambridge International A Level. This flexibility helps schools build a curriculum to suit their learners.
- Exam series take place in November and June.
- There are three assessment routes. Students can:
 - take all components of the Cambridge International A Level in one sitting (the linear route)
 - follow a staged assessment route by taking all Cambridge International AS Level components in one exam series and completing the final Cambridge International A Level in a subsequent series
 - or they can take the Cambridge International AS Level as a standalone option.
- The grade scale is A* to E for Cambridge International A Level, and A to E for Cambridge International AS Level, with E being the lowest grade.

- Cambridge International AS & A Level is taught in over 130 countries.
- Over 575 000 entries made by schools worldwide in 2018/19.
- A choice of more than 55 subjects in any combination.
- International entries for Cambridge International AS & A Level in June 2019 increased by 6% on June 2018.

Press office contact information Lisa Wright, International Communications Manager
t: +44 (0)1223 558433 e: media@cambridgeinternational.org