1.2 Why choose Cambridge IGCSE?

Cambridge IGCSEs are international in outlook, but retain a local relevance. The syllabuses provide opportunities for contextualised learning and the content has been created to suit a wide variety of schools, avoid cultural bias and develop essential lifelong skills, including creative thinking and problem-solving.

Our aim is to balance knowledge, understanding and skills in our programmes and qualifications to enable students to become effective learners and to provide a solid foundation for their continuing educational journey.

Through our professional development courses and our support materials for Cambridge IGCSEs, we provide the tools to enable teachers to prepare learners to the best of their ability and work with us in the pursuit of excellence in education.

Cambridge IGCSEs are considered to be an excellent preparation for Cambridge International AS and A Levels, the Cambridge AICE (Advanced International Certificate of Education) Group Award, Cambridge Pre-U, and other education programmes, such as the US Advanced Placement program and the International Baccalaureate Diploma programme. Learn more about Cambridge IGCSEs at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecundary2

Guided learning hours

Cambridge IGCSE syllabuses are designed on the assumption that learners have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course, but this is for guidance only. The number of hours required to gain the qualification may vary according to local curricular practice and the learners' prior experience of the subject.

1.3 Why choose Cambridge IGCSE Indonesian or Cambridge IGCSE Malay?

Cambridge IGCSE Indonesian and IGCSE Malay are accepted by universities and employers as proof of linguistic ability and understanding. The course encourages learners to develop lifelong skills, including:

- the ability to use a foreign language as a means of practical communication
- insight into the culture and civilisation of countries where the language is spoken
- a positive attitude towards language learning, towards the speakers of other languages, and towards other cultures and civilisations
- techniques which can be applied to other areas of learning, such as analysis and memory skills
- a sound foundation for progression to employment or further study.

This is one of a number of Cambridge IGCSE foreign language syllabuses – for a full list, visit the Cambridge website at www.cie.org.uk

Prior learning

We recommend that learners who are beginning this course should have previously achieved a level corresponding to the requirements of the Key Stage 3 programme of study for Modern Foreign Languages within the National Curriculum for England.

Progression

Cambridge IGCSEs are general qualifications that enable learners to progress either directly to employment, or to proceed to further qualifications.

Candidates who are awarded grades A* to C in Cambridge IGCSE Indonesian or Cambridge IGCSE Malay are well prepared to follow courses leading to Level 3 qualifications in the same language.

1.4 Cambridge ICE (International Certificate of Education)

Cambridge ICE is a group award for Cambridge IGCSE. It gives schools the opportunity to benefit from offering a broad and balanced curriculum by recognising the achievements of learners who pass examinations in a number of different subjects.

Learn more about Cambridge ICE at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecondary2

1.5 How can I find out more?

If you are already a Cambridge school

You can make entries for this qualification through your usual channels. If you have any questions, please contact us at info@cie.org.uk

2. Teacher support

2.1 Support materials

We send Cambridge syllabuses, past question papers and examiner reports to cover the last examination series to all Cambridge schools.

You can also go to our public website at www.cie.org.uk/igcse to download current and future syllabuses together with specimen papers or past question papers and examiner reports from one series.

For teachers at registered Cambridge schools a range of additional support materials for specific syllabuses is available from Teacher Support, our secure online support for Cambridge teachers. Go to <http://teachers.cie.org.uk> (username and password required).

2.2 Endorsed resources

We work with publishers providing a range of resources for our syllabuses including print and digital materials. Resources endorsed by Cambridge go through a detailed quality assurance process to ensure they provide a high level of support for teachers and learners.

We have resource lists which can be filtered to show all resources, or just those which are endorsed by Cambridge. The resource lists include further suggestions for resources to support teaching.

2.3 Training

We offer a range of support activities for teachers to ensure they have the relevant knowledge and skills to deliver our qualifications. See www.cie.org.uk/events for further information.

3. Syllabus content at a glance

The syllabus content is organised around five broad Topic areas which provide contexts for the acquisition of vocabulary and the study of grammar and structures. Through the study of these Topic areas, candidates gain insight into target language countries and communities. The Topic areas are:

- everyday activities
- personal and social life
- the world around us
- the world of work
- the international world.

4. Assessment at a glance

All candidates take the following three components:

Grades available: A*, A, B, C, D, E, F, G		Weighting of papers
Paper 2 Reading Candidates read a number of texts and answer questions testing comprehension. 45 marks Externally assessed	1 hour	approximately 33%

Please see the Teachers' Notes Booklet for additional information. Teachers' Notes Booklets and Role Play Cards for the speaking tests are despatched to Centres on the basis of their Estimated Entries. It is therefore important that Centres submit Estimated Entries for these syllabuses by the deadline published in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.*

Availability

These syllabuses are examined in the June examination series.

These syllabuses are available to private candidates.

Detailed timetables are available from www.cie.org.uk/examsOfficers

Combining this syllabus with other syllabuses

Candidates can combine these syllabuses in an examination series with any other Cambridge syllabus, except:

- syllabuses with the same title at the same level
- syllabus 0545 Indonesian must not be offered in the same series with 0538 Bahasa Indonesia.

Please note that Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificate and Cambridge O Level syllabuses are at the same level.

5. Syllabus aims and assessment objectives

5.1 Syllabus aims

The aims of the syllabus outline the educational purposes of a course in a foreign language for the Cambridge IGCSE examination. They are not listed in order of priority.

This syllabus aims to:

- develop the ability to communicate effectively using the target language
- offer insights into the culture and civilisation of countries where the language is spoken
- encourage fuller integration into the local community, where relevant
- develop awareness of the nature of language and language learning
- encourage positive attitudes towards speakers of other languages and a sympathetic approach to other cultures and civilisations
- provide enjoyment and intellectual stimulation
- develop transferable skills (e.g. analysis, memorising, drawing of inferences) to complement other areas of the curriculum
- form a sound base of the skills, language and attitudes required for progression to work or further study, either in the target language or another subject area.

5.2 Assessment objectives

Candidates will be assessed on their ability to:

AO1 Understand and respond to spoken language

AO2 Understand and respond to written language

AO3 Communicate in speech, showing knowledge of a range and variety of vocabulary, and applying the grammar and structures of the target language accurately

AO4 Communicate in writing, showing knowledge of a range and variety of vocabulary, and applying the grammar and structures of the target language accurately.

5.3 Relationship between assessment objectives and components

The marks allocated to each of the assessment objectives are summarised below.

	Paper 2 Reading (marks)	Paper 3 Speaking (marks)	Paper 4 Writing (marks)	Weighting for qualification (%)
AO1		✓*
AO2	45			approx. 33%

* AO1 Listening (although not formally assessed) is an integral part of the Paper 3 Speaking examination.

5.4 Grade descriptions

Grade A

Reading Candidates understand gist and identify main points and detail in texts drawn from a variety of contexts and topic areas. They recognise points of view, attitudes and emotions and are able to draw conclusions. They show an ability to understand unfamiliar language and to extract meaning from more complex language.

Speaking Candidates develop conversations and discussions and narrate events. They express and justify ideas and opinions, and produce longer sequences of speech using a variety of vocabulary and structures and refer to past and future events. They speak confidently with good pronunciation and intonation. The message is clear although there may still be some errors, especially when using more complex structures.

Writing Candidates give information and narrate events. They express and justify ideas and opinions. They use a range of vocabulary and structures and refer to past and future events. Their spelling and grammar are generally accurate and their style is appropriate to purpose.

Grade C

Reading Candidates identify and extract details and opinions from texts drawn from a variety of contexts and topic areas. The texts include past and future events and may include familiar language in unfamiliar contexts.

Speaking Candidates develop conversations and simple discussions which include past and future events. They express opinions and show an ability to deal with some unpredictable elements. Although there may be some errors, they convey a reasonably clear message and their pronunciation and intonation are generally accurate.

Writing Candidates express opinions and write about a variety of topics which may be factual or imaginative and which may refer to past and future events. The style is basic but despite some errors the writing conveys a clear message.

Grade F

Reading Candidates identify main points and extract some information from short, simple texts. They may use context to work out the meaning of words.

Speaking Candidates take part in simple conversations showing some ability to communicate simple information in response to straightforward questions. Their pronunciation is understandable. Although there will be grammatical inaccuracies, the main points are usually communicated.

Writing Candidates write short sentences and communicate simple ideas. Although there may be mistakes in spelling and grammar, the main points are usually communicated.

7. Description of components

All examination papers are set entirely in the target language; this includes rubrics and all questions. All questions requiring written answers, including questions testing reading comprehension, are to be answered in the target language.

Dictionaries are not permitted in the examination.

For detailed guidance on how the papers are marked, please refer to the published specimen mark schemes available on our public website.

7.1 Paper 2: Reading

1 hour, 45 marks

All candidates must attempt all three sections.

Candidates will encounter a variety of question types. The Reading Paper is designed to test comprehension skills and includes objective questions and questions which require candidates to write answers in the target language. Where candidates are required to produce written answers in the target language, they are not penalised for incorrect or inaccurate language unless it makes their answers ambiguous. It is important that they write briefly, relevantly and concisely. Provided that answers are unambiguous, long answers in full sentences are often not required. Candidates should be encouraged to paraphrase and manipulate the language in order to answer questions appropriately. They are unlikely to score high marks on this paper if they simply copy large chunks from the stimulus material, with no attempt to select what is relevant.

Answers written in any language other than that being tested are ignored.

Section 1 (15 marks)

- Exercise 1 (5 marks): candidates read a series of short notices, signs, instructions, messages, advertisements, etc. and answer multiple-choice questions.
- Exercise 2 (5 marks): candidates read a series of short statements and complete a matching exercise which tests the main words in these statements.
- Exercise 3 (5 marks): candidates read a short text in the form of an email, message, postcard, letter, etc. Questions are objective and test the main points and some detail.

Section 2 (15 marks)

- Exercise 1 (5 marks): candidates read a short text in the form of a brochure, guide, etc. Questions are objective and test the main points and specific detail.
- Exercise 2 (10 marks): candidates read a longer text in the form of a letter, email, etc. Questions test general understanding of the main points, which includes recognising simple attitudes and opinions. Questions require short answers in the target language.

Section 3 (15 marks)

- Exercises 1 and 2 (15 marks): candidates read two longer, more complex texts. Questions test general and specific comprehension. They will also require candidates to identify attitudes, emotions and ideas, the main points or themes, and to draw conclusions. Some of the questions are objective, some require short answers in the target language.

7.2 Paper 3: Speaking

Approximately 15 minutes, 100 marks

The Speaking examination consists of a single interview with three compulsory parts:

- Test 1: Role Plays (about 5 minutes)
- Test 2: Topic Presentation (1-2 minutes) / Conversation (3-4 minutes)
- Test 3: General Conversation (5 minutes)

Please refer to the Specimen Teachers' Notes and Specimen Role Play Cards on the website for full details about how to conduct and assess the speaking tests. A video of an example speaking test is available on Teacher Support.

The Parts of the Speaking Test

Test 1: Role Plays (about 5 minutes, 30 marks)

Cambridge provides several alternative Role Play Cards in each examination series. Each candidate is tested on one card. Each card contains two Role Plays: Role Play A and Role Play B. The teacher/Examiner must use the script/instructions given in the Teachers' Notes Booklet in order to conduct this part of the test.

Before the test, each candidate must be given 15 minutes in a separate, supervised room to read through their Role Play Card and think about how they will respond to the given tasks. They may not take any notes or reference materials into the preparation room, and they may not make any notes during the preparation time. This preparation should be done in silence, and the candidate should have no contact with any other candidates.

Role Play A is more straightforward than Role Play B. The candidate must complete five tasks in each Role Play. The tasks will include giving or seeking information and responding to what the teacher/Examiner says.

The aim of the Role Plays is to allow the candidate to demonstrate that they can communicate successfully in a variety of everyday scenarios. Communication is the main criteria used in marking: candidates' language does not need to be perfect in order for successful communication to be achieved. The teacher/Examiner needs to be a "sympathetic native speaker" during these Role Plays.

Teacher/Examiners need to encourage candidates to attempt all the tasks in the role play scenarios. If a candidate misses out a task, the teacher/Examiner should guide them back to it in as natural a way as possible.

The teacher/Examiner uses Table A of the marking criteria to assess this part of the speaking test. See Appendix for the marking grids.

Test 2: Topic Presentation (1-2 minutes) and Topic Conversation (3-4 minutes), 30 marks

Before the test, each candidate chooses a topic they are interested in. Examples of topics suitable for this linguistic level include "School Life", "My hobbies", "My country" and "My ambitions".

"My life" or "Myself" are not good choices of topic, as these overlap with Part 3: General Conversation.

In this part of the test, the candidate first presents their topic uninterrupted for 1–2 minutes. After 2 minutes, or before this if the candidate runs out of things to say, the teacher/Examiner must interrupt the candidate and ask them questions about the topic, to develop into a conversation between the teacher/Examiner and candidate.

After the candidate's presentation, the conversation must be spontaneous and unprepared. Conversation questions should aim to stretch the candidate to show opinions, justifications and past and future meaning.

Test 2 should take 5 minutes in total.

The teacher/Examiner uses Tables B and C of the marking criteria to assess this part of the speaking test. See Appendix for the marking grids.

Test 3: General Conversation (5 minutes), 30 marks

The teacher/Examiner asks the candidate a series of questions about 2 or 3 topics from the Syllabus Content. These topics must not overlap with the topic used in Test 2: Topic Presentation/Conversation.

The conversation must be spontaneous and unprepared.

Conversation questions should aim to stretch the candidate to show opinions, justifications and past and future meaning.

The teacher/Examiner uses Tables B and C of the marking criteria to assess this part of the speaking test. See Appendix for the marking grids.

General Impression

At the end of the test, the teacher/Examiner uses Table D to award a mark for General Impression.

Administration of the Speaking examination

Dates for Speaking examination

Speaking tests take place in the period before the main examination series as notified on the timetable. Each Centre decides on a convenient period within these dates to conduct the speaking tests.

Appointment of teacher/Examiner

Each Centre selects its own teacher/Examiner to conduct and assess the Speaking examination. This is normally a teacher from within the Languages Department, but could be someone from outside the Centre.

In the interests of standardisation, only one teacher/Examiner should be appointed per Centre.

Where a Centre wishes to use additional teacher/Examiners because it has large numbers of candidates, permission to do so must be sought from the Languages Group at Cambridge well before the start of each Speaking examination period. Permission to use more than one teacher/Examiner will only be granted on the understanding that (i) teacher/Examiners at the Centre work together to ensure a common approach to the conduct of the Speaking examination and the application of the mark scheme and (ii) the Speaking examinations for all candidates at the Centre are recorded. The sample the Centre submits to Cambridge must include the work of each teacher/Examiner and a Speaking examination Working Mark Sheet must be submitted for each teacher/Examiner, with candidate names and numbers clearly entered. Guidelines for the internal standardisation/moderation of Speaking examinations are available from Cambridge.

Arrangements for the examination

It is the Centre's responsibility to provide suitable rooms and good quality equipment in order to ensure the smooth-running of the Speaking examination. Examination conditions must prevail in the area where the Speaking examination takes place and adequate supervision must be provided to ensure that each candidate can prepare his/her role plays alone and in silence in a separate preparation room. Dictionaries and writing materials are not allowed in the preparation room.

Preparation of confidential test materials

Confidential test materials (Teachers' Notes Booklet and Role Play Cards) are sent to Centres approximately two to three weeks before the start of the assessment period and include full instructions on how to conduct and assess the Speaking examination. These should be opened in the four working days before the Centre's assessment starts and studied carefully by the teacher/Examiner before conducting his/her first Speaking examination. Teacher/Examiners who have prepared their own roles fully and are confident in what they are doing are better able to help candidates should they experience any difficulty. Once the materials have been opened, the Speaking examinations must be completed as soon as is realistically possible. Once the Centre has completed the Speaking examinations, the materials remain confidential and must be kept in a secure place by the Centre until the end of the examination period. Candidates must not have knowledge of the role play situations in advance of the examination.

Recording of sample for external moderation

All the speaking examinations must be recorded.

It is preferable for the Speaking tests to be recorded in .mp3 format using a suitable digital voice recorder or sound recording programme on a computer. There should be one .mp3 file per candidate. The .mp3 files must then be transferred to standard format CDs. Do not use mini-CDs or USB sticks. (It is permissible to use audio cassettes, but .mp3 files on CDs are strongly preferred.) The Centre is responsible for supplying cassettes/CDs: these will not be supplied by Cambridge. Centres wishing to submit recordings as digital files to Cambridge for External Moderation will find more detailed guidance in the Exams Officer area of the website www.cie.org.uk

Centres must check their recordings are audible before sending them to Cambridge.

Composition of sample for external moderation

In order to allow Cambridge to accurately check the standard of assessment, each Centre must send to Cambridge a sample of the recordings as follows:

- Centres entering 1–16 candidates must send the recordings of all candidates
- Centres entering 17 or more candidates must send:
 - (i) the recordings of the first 10 candidates according to candidate number and

 - (ii) the recordings of 6 candidates spread evenly across the ability range. The candidates selected should be representative of the range of marks awarded by the Centre and should be spread as evenly as possible across that range. If possible, the recordings of the strongest and the weakest candidates at the Centre should be included, with the other recordings spaced at equal intervals in between.

Note: Centres entering 17 or more candidates must send a total of 16 recordings. The category (ii) candidates must be chosen from candidates who do not fall into category (i). In Centres with just over 17 candidates, Cambridge accepts this may mean that the category (ii) candidates are not fully representative of the range.

Feedback on conduct and assessment of Speaking examinations

Centres will receive a brief report on the outcome of moderation (Form CW/C/REP).

7.3 Paper 4: Writing

1 hour, 50 marks

All candidates must attempt both sections.

Answers written in any language other than that being tested are ignored.

Section 1 (20 marks)

- Question 1 (5 marks): candidates are required to write a series of single words linked to a topic. Suggestions to help the candidate (in the form of pictures) are provided on the question paper, but any words relevant to the topic that are produced by the candidate in the examination will be considered for reward.
- Question 2 (15 marks): a directed writing task. 80–90 words in total are required. 10 marks are available for Communication and 5 marks for Language.

Marks are only awarded for material which addresses the set tasks. Minus marks are never used: candidates are given every opportunity to gain marks for what they can do.

Section 2 (30 marks)

- Question 3 (30 marks): candidates are offered a choice of three tasks (an email/letter, an article, and a narrative) and must complete one of these. 130–140 words in total are required. 10 marks are available for Communication, 10 marks for Accuracy of Grammar and Structures and 10 marks for Range, Variety and Appropriateness.

Candidates are expected to communicate accurately and should make use of a wide variety of idiom, vocabulary and structure and refer to past and future events. A system of positive marking is used. Irrelevant material is not rewarded.

8. Other information

Equality and inclusion

Cambridge International Examinations has taken great care in the preparation of this syllabus and assessment materials to avoid bias of any kind. To comply with the UK Equality Act (2010), Cambridge has designed this qualification with the aim of avoiding direct and indirect discrimination.

The standard assessment arrangements may present unnecessary barriers for candidates with disabilities or learning difficulties. Arrangements can be put in place for these candidates to enable them to access the assessments and receive recognition of their attainment. Access arrangements will not be agreed if they give candidates an unfair advantage over others or if they compromise the standards being assessed.

Candidates who are unable to access the assessment of any component may be eligible to receive an award based on the parts of the assessment they have taken.

Information on access arrangements is found in the Cambridge Handbook which can be downloaded from the website www.cie.org.uk/examsofficer

Language

This syllabus and the associated assessment materials are available partly in English and partly in the target language.

Grading and reporting

Cambridge IGCSE results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, F or G indicating the standard achieved, A* being the highest and G the lowest. 'Ungraded' indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for grade G. 'Ungraded' will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate. The letters Q (result pending), X (no results) and Y (to be issued) may also appear on the statement of results but not on the certificate.

Entry codes

To maintain the security of our examinations, we produce question papers for different areas of the world, known as 'administrative zones'. Where the component entry code has two digits, the first digit is the component number given in the syllabus. The second digit is the location code, specific to an administrative zone. Information about entry codes can be found in the Cambridge Guide to Making Entries.

9. Appendix: Speaking (Paper 3)

9.1 Marking grids for the Speaking examination and the Working Mark Sheet

9.1.1 Marking instructions for the Speaking examination

- Please refer to the Teachers' Notes Booklet for further guidance on using the marking grids and Working Mark Sheet.

Table A – Mark Scheme for Test 1: Role Plays (30 marks)

An accurate utterance which not only conveys the meaning but which is expressed in native idiom and appropriate register. Minor errors are tolerated. The utterance is intelligible and the task of communication is achieved.	3
The language used is not necessarily the most appropriate to the situation and may contain inaccuracies which do not obscure the meaning.	2
Communication of some meaning is achieved, but the native speaker would find the message ambiguous or incomplete.	1
The utterance is unintelligible to the native speaker.	0

Notes

- 1 If there are two elements in a task and only one is completed, then a maximum of one mark only may be awarded.
- 2 Short utterances, if appropriate, can be worth three marks.

Tables B and C – Mark Schemes for Test 2: Topic Presentation/Conversation and Test 3: General Conversation (2 × 30 marks)

Each of Tests 2 (Topic Presentation/Conversation) and 3 (General Conversation) is awarded:

- a mark out of 15 for Communication (see Table B)
