It is said that Sir Isaac Newton discovered gravity simply because he asked himself ‘why do apples fall from trees?’

Our education programmes help students develop an informed curiosity, so they can live a life of discovery.