About these guidelines

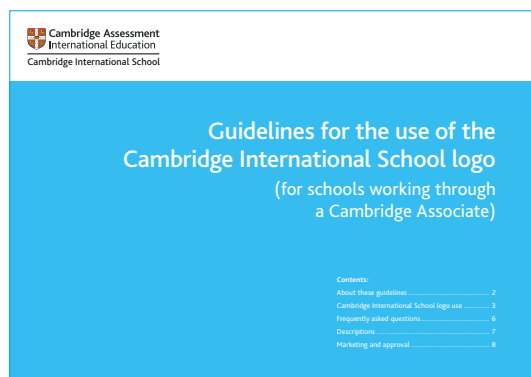

Our brand

Our brand is extremely important and one of the most valuable elements is the Coat of Arms (shield) of the University of Cambridge. This was granted for use by the Scholars of the University of Cambridge by the English Crown during the reign of Queen Elizabeth I in 1573. This symbol now represents educational excellence around the world, nearly 500 years later.

As a Cambridge Associate you are being granted permission to use this symbol of excellence but we ask that you treat it with respect and note that permission is granted solely based on compliance with these guidelines.

Permission is also granted to your schools on condition that you are accountable for the approval of their marketing materials in compliance with the guidelines we provide for their Cambridge International School logo: www.cambridgeinternational.org/logos

Please refer to the guidelines titled 'Guidelines for the use of the Cambridge International School logo (for schools working through a Cambridge Associate)'

Your responsibilities

As a Cambridge Associate you have a responsibility to comply with the guidelines for use of the Cambridge Associate logo and the additional responsibility of ensuring your schools adhere to the guidelines for use of the Cambridge International School logo.

These obligations are set out in the Cambridge Handbook, specifically in Clause A13: If you do not keep to the processes and procedures set out in this Cambridge Handbook, we will be entitled to take appropriate action, which may include:

A13.1 requiring you to take remedial action

A13.2 requiring you to undergo further inspection and quality assurance visits

A13.3 removing your centre's eligibility to enter for some or all of our qualifications, or

A13.4 removing your centre status and terminating any contract we have with you.

The Cambridge Associate logo can only be used in ways set out in these guidelines. We do not permit any other use.

You must get approval from us before printing or publishing any item using the Cambridge Associate logo (see page 8 for the approval process). Your schools must get approval from you for the use of the Cambridge International School logo in their marketing and promotional materials.

File formats

There is a colour and a white version of the Cambridge Associate logo (see below) These are supplied in the Communications toolkit area of our website in JPG or PNG format for digital use and EPS format for print use.

Fig. 1 – Cambridge Associate colour logo

Fig. 2 – Cambridge Associate white logo

Fig. 3 – Clearance area required around the logo

Logo clearance area

We require half shield clearance above and below the logo and a full shield width either side of the logo (see above). We also require that the logo is on a plain background as this allows for maximum legibility.

Important information

Always use the logo exactly as provided and do not amend in anyway. Different file formats for this logo are available in the Communications toolkit area of our website, for which you were given a login at the point of registration. Go to www.cambridgeinternational.org/logos

Correct placement

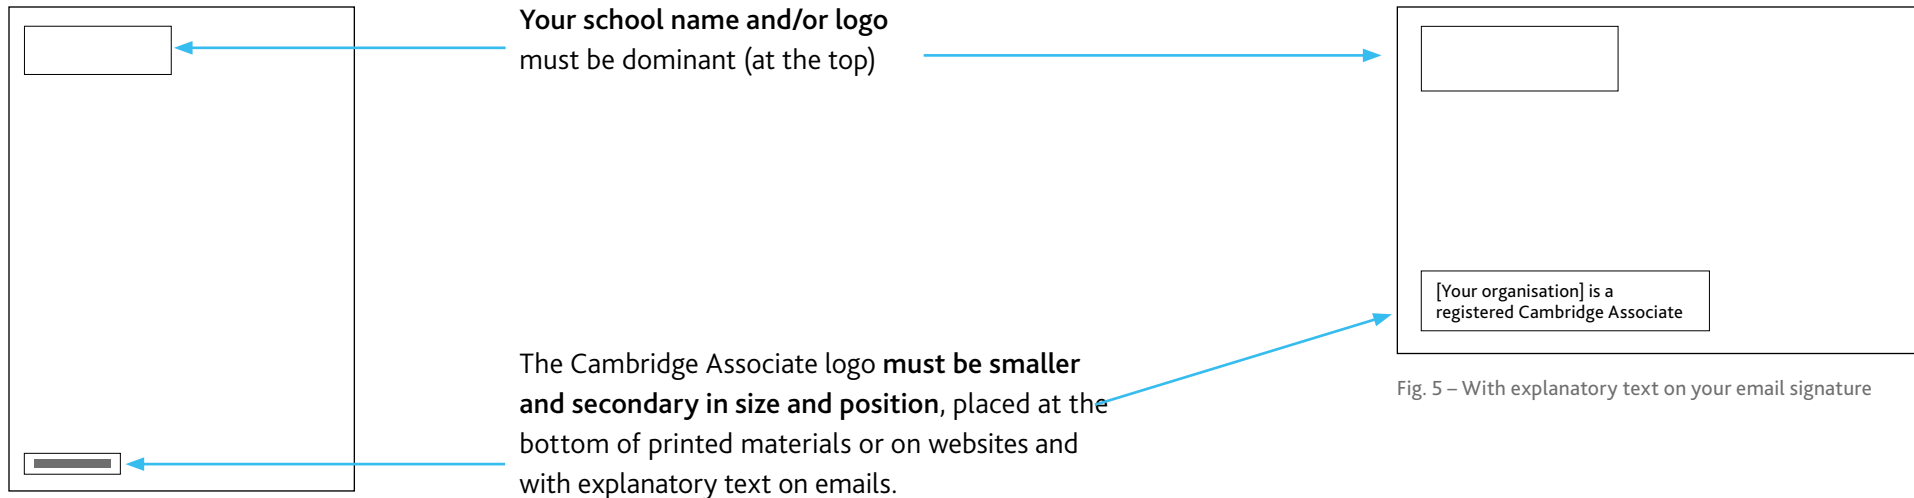

Fig. 4 – At bottom of printed material

Fig. 5 – With explanatory text on your email signature

Notes:

- The Cambridge Associate logo must be secondary in size and position to your own logo.
- There must not be any confusion regarding your identity as an organisation independent of us.
- When used alongside other exam board logos please ensure they are all proportionately the same size and that the size and clearance zones indicated in Fig. 3 (on the previous page) are maintained.

Email signatures and/or business cards

Instead of the Cambridge Associate logo, please use the following line of text after your organisation's name and/or logo:

[Your organisation name] is a registered Cambridge Associate

Example signature:

[Your name], [Job title]

[Your organisation name], 123 High St, City, Country

[Your organisation name] is a registered Cambridge Associate

Correct materials

The Cambridge Associate version of our logo is only for use on your marketing and publicity material, including:

- leaflets ✓
- advertisements ✓
- brochures ✓
- marketing videos ✓
- letterhead and envelopes ✓
- posters ✓

Do not use the Cambridge Associate logo on any item that might create confusion regarding your status as an independent organisation.

Do not use the Cambridge Associate logo in any circumstance that might damage our reputation.

We have the right to request removal of this logo from any promotional or publicity material that has potential to damage our reputation.

Incorrect materials

The following are examples of where it is inappropriate to use the Cambridge Associate logo:

- uniforms or name badges ✗
- report cards ✗
- certificates ✗
- financial documents (e.g. invoices or receipts) ✗
- internal signage ✗
- class registers ✗
- email signatures and business cards* ✗

On email signatures and business cards only, you should use a line of text instead of the logo (see previous page).*

Frequently asked questions

To help you we have provided answers to the questions we are often asked in relation to the use of the Cambridge Associate logo.

May I use the shield on its own?

No. We do not allow the shield to be used on its own because it is the symbol of the University of Cambridge. We do not want our Associates to be confused between Cambridge Assessment International Education (a department) and the University itself.

Can I incorporate the shield into my name or organisation logo?

No. We do not allow incorporation of the shield into names or organisation logos because it implies a belonging to the University of Cambridge. You are registered with us and are therefore permitted to use only the customer version of the logo we have prepared for you. Please use your own independent identity to promote yourselves.

Do I have to approve the logo usage on my schools' marketing materials?

Yes. If your schools use the Cambridge International School logo on marketing materials, they must send them to you for approval before printing or publishing. You must make sure they have followed the guidelines for the use of the Cambridge International School logo available at www.cambridgeinternational.org/logos

Please refer to the guidelines titled 'Guidelines for the use of the Cambridge International School logo (for schools working through a Cambridge Associate)'

Can I incorporate 'Cambridge' into my name?

No. Again, we believe this will cause confusion as incorporating the name 'Cambridge' may imply a legal association that cannot be substantiated. We prefer your name to be completely independent of ourselves.

The way I want to use the Cambridge Associate logo is not covered in these guidelines – may I use it the way I want?

No. These guidelines show how the Cambridge Associate logo may be used. Any situation that is not covered in these guidelines is not permitted.

May I use the Cambridge Associate logo on my stationery and in email signatures?

You can only use the Cambridge Associate logo on letterheads and envelopes, and it must be secondary in size and position to your own logo. This is to avoid confusion regarding your status as an independent organisation.

For business cards and email signatures, please use the line of text below instead of the Cambridge Associate logo:

'[Your organisation name] is a registered Cambridge Associate'.
