Cambridge IGCSEs are international in outlook but retain a local relevance. The syllabi provide opportunities for contextualized learning, and the content has been created to suit a wide variety of schools, avoid cultural bias, and develop essential lifelong skills, including creative thinking and problem solving.

Our goal is to balance knowledge, understanding, and skills in our programs and qualifications to enable students to become effective learners and to provide a solid foundation for their continuing educational journey.

Through our professional development courses and our support materials for Cambridge IGCSEs, we provide the tools to enable teachers to prepare students to the best of their ability and work with us in the pursuit of excellence in education.

Cambridge IGCSEs are considered to be an excellent preparation for Cambridge International AS and A Levels, the Cambridge AICE (Advanced International Certificate of Education) Group Award, Cambridge Pre-U, and other education programs, such as the US Advanced Placement program and the International Baccalaureate Diploma program. Learn more about Cambridge IGCSEs at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecondary2

Guided Learning Hours

Cambridge IGCSE syllabi are designed with the assumption that candidates have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course, but this is for guidance only. The number of hours required to gain the qualification may vary according to local curricular practice and the candidates' prior experience with the subject.

1.3 Why Choose Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English)?

Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English) is accepted by universities and employers as proof of real knowledge and understanding. Successful candidates gain lifelong skills, including the ability to:

- read, interpret, and evaluate texts through the study of literature in English;
- develop an understanding of literal and implicit meaning, relevant contexts, and of the deeper themes or attitudes that may be expressed;
- recognize and appreciate the ways in which writers use English to achieve a range of effects;
- present an informed, personal response to materials they have studied;
- explore wider and universal issues, promoting students' better understanding of themselves and of the world around them.

Prerequisites

We recommend that candidates who are beginning this course should have previously studied some creative writing (prose/poetry and/or drama) in English.

Progression

Cambridge IGCSE Certificates are general qualifications that enable candidates to progress either directly to employment or to proceed to further qualifications.

Candidates who are awarded grades C to A* in Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English) are well prepared to follow courses leading to Cambridge International AS and A Level English Literature or the equivalent.

1.4 Cambridge ICE (International Certificate of Education)

Cambridge ICE is a group award for Cambridge IGCSE. It gives schools the opportunity to benefit from offering a broad and balanced curriculum by recognizing the achievements of candidates who pass examinations in a number of different subjects.

Learn more about Cambridge ICE at www.cie.org.uk/cambridgesecondary2

1.5 How Can I Find Out More?

If You Are Already a Cambridge School

4. Syllabus Goals and Assessment Objectives

4.1 Goals

The syllabus goals, which are not listed in order of priority, are to encourage and develop candidates' ability to:

- enjoy the experience of reading literature;
- understand and respond to literary texts in different forms and from different periods and cultures;
- communicate an informed personal response appropriately and effectively;
- appreciate different ways in which writers achieve their effects;
- experience literature's contribution to aesthetic, imaginative, and intellectual growth;
- explore the contribution of literature to an understanding of areas of human concern.

4.2 Assessment Objectives

There are four Assessment Objectives (AOs) and candidates are assessed on their ability to:

AO1: show detailed knowledge of the content of literary texts in the three main forms (Drama, Poetry, and Prose), supported by reference to the text;

AO2: understand the meanings of literary texts and their contexts, and explore texts beyond surface meanings to show deeper awareness of ideas and attitudes;

AO3: recognize and appreciate ways in which writers use language, structure, and form to create and shape meanings and effects;

AO4: communicate a sensitive and informed personal response to literary texts.

Each of the assessment objectives is present in each of the papers, with the following weighting:

	Paper 1	Paper 2	Paper 3

5. Description of Papers

5.1 Paper 1: Poetry and Prose

(1 hour, 30 minutes)

Candidates answer two questions. One from Section A (Poetry) and one from Section B (Prose). All questions carry equal marks.

There is a choice of two questions on each text.

Relevant passages/poems are printed on the question paper.

Candidates may not take their set texts into the exam room for Paper 1.

All questions encourage an informed personal response and test all four assessment objectives. Candidates will have to demonstrate the following:

- knowledge of the content of the text—through reference to detail and use of quotations from the text (AO1)
- understanding of characters, relationships, situations, and themes (AO2)
- understanding of writer’s intentions and methods—response to the writer’s use of language (AO3)
- personal response—sometimes directly (answering questions such as “What do you think?,” “What are your feelings about . . .?”) and sometimes by implication (answering questions such as “Explore the ways in which . . .”) (AO4).

The written paper is an externally set assessment, marked by Cambridge.

5.2 Paper 2: Drama

(45 minutes)

Candidates answer one question on one text.

There is a choice of two questions on each text.

Relevant passages are printed on the question paper.

Candidates may take their set text(s) into the exam room for Paper 2, but these must not contain personal annotations, underlining, or highlighting.

All questions encourage an informed personal response and test all four assessment objectives. Candidates will have to demonstrate the following:

- knowledge of the content of the text—through reference to detail and use of quotations from the text (AO1)
- understanding of characters, relationships, situations, and themes (AO2)
- understanding of writer’s intentions and methods—response to the writer’s use of language (AO3)

- personal response—sometimes directly (answering questions such as “What do you think?” “What are your feelings about . . .?”) and sometimes by implication (answering questions such as “Explore the ways in which . . .”) (AO4).

The written paper is an externally set assessment, marked by Cambridge.

5.3 Paper 3: Coursework Portfolio

Candidates submit a portfolio of two assignments.

- Each assignment should be between 600–1,000 words and should be based on the study of one complete text, equivalent in scope and demand to a set text on Paper 1 or Paper 2.
- The assignments must be on two different texts.
- One of the assignments (but not two) may be on a text prepared for Paper 1 or Paper 2. (There is no requirement to include work on a Paper 1 or Paper 2 text.)
- One of the assignments may be an empathic response to a prose or drama text.

Assignments can be handwritten, typed, or word-processed.

The phrasing of each assignment’s title must clearly address each of the four Assessment Objectives.

Coursework is assessed and marked by the Center, and a sample is submitted for external moderation by Cambridge.

For more information and guidance on creating, presenting, and marking the Coursework, see Section 9.

9. Coursework Guidance

9.1 Coursework Portfolio (Paper 3): Guidance Notes

For further guidance and for the general regulations concerning internal Coursework assessment, see the Cambridge Handbook.

General Guidance

Portfolio Format

- The portfolio will contain two assignments, each on a different text.
- The assignments must be securely fastened and clearly marked with the candidate's name, number, and the Center number.
- Work sent to Cambridge for external moderation must not be sent in clear plastic folders or ring binders. A completed Candidate Record Card must be included with each portfolio.

Assignments: General Issues

- Assignments usually follow a program of study undertaken by a teaching group. The best assignments usually follow a shared learning experience but are selected by the candidate. It is recommended that the teacher and the candidate discuss which are the best assignments to submit.
- Candidates do not have to produce assignments under timed examination-type conditions.
- Assignments may be completed at any stage during the course. Candidates should undertake more than two assignments to provide a choice of assignments for their portfolio.

Assignments: Texts

- Assignment texts can be chosen by teachers or by candidates and teachers together. They must be originally written in English and of a quality appropriate for study at Cambridge IGCSE.
- Candidates within a Center do not have to submit assignments on the same texts.
- Assignments should show that the candidate has studied the whole text.
- If poetry or short stories are used for an assignment, candidates should cover a minimum of two poems or stories. Candidates are not required to compare poems or stories within the assignment, as it is assumed that the assignment is based on the study of a wider selection of poems or stories broadly equivalent to a poetry or short stories set text from the list.

Drafting Assignments

- A general discussion on the progress of assignments is a natural part of the teacher/candidate relationship, as it is for other parts of the exam. In addition, if plans and first drafts are completed under teacher supervision, then teachers can be reassured of the authenticity of the final assignment.
- Teachers should not, however, mark, correct, or edit draft assignment material; candidates can certainly draft and redraft work, but teachers should give only general guidance during this phase.

Length of Assignments

- Assignments should be between 600 and 1,000 words. This is a guideline. Candidates must not confuse length with quality. Although no assignment is penalized per se because of its length, assignments significantly under or over this word count guidance may be self-penalizing.

Presenting Assignments

- Candidates may use computers or word-processors or can write their assignments by hand. Candidates should remember to carefully proofread their work.

Checking Portfolios for Authenticity

- It is the Center's responsibility to make sure all Coursework is the candidate's original work. Where appropriate, candidates should provide references to secondary source material, listing these at the end of the assignment.

Feedback Following External Moderation

- Centers receive a brief report from the external moderator following the assessment of their candidates' portfolios, usually at the same time as the final exam results.

9.2 Marking and Moderating Coursework

As well as commenting on the overall quality of the portfolio, recorded on the Individual Candidate Record Card, teachers must mark each assignment by indicating the strengths and errors and by providing a final comment.

Each assignment is to be marked out of a total of 25, in accordance with the criteria that follow.

Assessment usually involves balancing strengths and weaknesses in the candidate's work. If a candidate submits no assignment, a mark of zero must be recorded.

Recording candidates' marks

Candidates' marks for Component 3 Coursework must be recorded on the Individual Candidate Record Card produced by Cambridge. These forms, and the instructions for completing them, may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples. The database will ask you for the syllabus code (i.e, 0427) and your Center number, after which it will take you to the correct forms. Follow the instructions when completing each form.

Internal Moderation

If several teachers in a Center are involved in internal assessment, then the Center must make sure that all candidates are assessed to a common standard in order to produce a reliable order of rank. Center assessments will then be subject to external moderation.

External Moderation

External moderation of internal assessment is carried out by Cambridge. Centers must submit candidates' internally assessed marks to Cambridge. The deadlines and methods for submitting internally assessed marks are in the Cambridge Administrative Guide available on our website.

9.3 Assessment Criteria for Coursework

10. Appendix A

10.1 Resources: Set Text Editions

Unless otherwise stated, candidates may use any edition of the set text, as long as it is not an abridged or simplified version. There are many editions of set texts available, with newer editions sometimes including notes (often displayed on facing pages), illustrations, activities, and further resources, which make these texts particularly useful and user-friendly.

Any of these texts may be taken into the examination room for Paper 2 (Drama), but the text must not contain any annotations made by the candidate.

The edition of Shakespeare used for setting extract questions on examination papers is the Alexander Text of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare, ed. Peter Alexander (Collins, 1951; new edition 2006, introduced by Peter Ackroyd). However, this complete standard one-volume edition is not recommended for classroom study of individual plays.

Some examples of reliable and useful series:

Cambridge School Shakespeare series	edited R. Gibson
Cambridge Literature series (includes classics of poetry, prose, and drama)	edited J. Baxter
Penguin Shakespeare	Penguin
Oxford School Shakespeare	Oxford University Press
Heinemann Shakespeare	Heinemann
Longman School Shakespeare	Pearson—Longman (series editor John O'Connor) (useful for candidates with a second language English background)

Resources are also listed on Cambridge's public website at www.cie.org.uk. Please visit this site on a regular basis as the Resource lists are updated through the year.

11. Other Information

Equality and Inclusion

Cambridge International Examinations has taken great care in the preparation of this syllabus and assessment materials to avoid bias of any kind. To comply with the UK Equality Act (2010), Cambridge has designed this qualification with the goal of avoiding direct and indirect discrimination.

The standard assessment arrangements may present unnecessary barriers for candidates with disabilities or learning difficulties. Arrangements can be put in place for these candidates to enable them to access the assessments and receive recognition of their attainment. Access arrangements will not be agreed to if they give candidates an unfair advantage over others or if they compromise the standards being assessed.

Candidates who are unable to access the assessment of any component may be eligible to receive an award based on the parts of the assessment they have taken.

Information on access arrangements is found in the Cambridge Handbook, which can be downloaded from the website www.cie.org.uk/exams/officers

This syllabus and the associated assessment materials are available in English only.

Grading and Reporting

Cambridge IGCSE results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, F, or G indicating the standard achieved, A* being the highest and G the lowest. "Ungraded" indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for grade G. "Ungraded" will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate. The letters Q (result pending), X (no results), and Y (to be issued) may also appear on the statement of results but not on the certificate.

Entry Codes

To maintain the security of our examinations, we produce question papers for different areas of the world, known as "administrative zones." Where the component entry code has two digits, the first digit is the component number given in the syllabus. The second digit is the location code, specific to an administrative zone. Information about entry codes can be found in the Cambridge Guide to Making Entries.
