| Other changes     | • We have changed references to a CD provided by Cambridge International for Paper 2 Listening to only make reference to audio material. This is to ensure that when new technology for delivering the audio material is available the syllabus remains correct.
• Centres should check the Cambridge Handbook for the year candidates are taking the assessment for information on when the audio materials will be available and how to access the materials. |

We have not updated the specimen materials for this syllabus.

Please check the updated syllabus for further information.

The syllabus has been updated. You are strongly advised to read the whole syllabus before planning your teaching programme.
