Other activities to think about in February

November 2024 series

- Make sure all your candidates' names and other details are correct on results documentation ready for the certificates we send you in March. There is an administrative fee for any requests to amend details received after 26 February 2025.
- Submit all your enquiries about results by 26 February 2025. We will not accept requests received after this date. We will invoice you for any enquiries about results that do not lead to a syllabus grade change.

June 2025 series

- We will send your entries confirmation pack within two weeks of receiving your entries. If you have not received your pack two weeks after you have submitted your entries contact us. You can download your statements of entry from Direct within 48 hours of submitting your entries. Check them carefully and let us know if any of the information is incorrect.
- We will charge late entry fees for any entries and entry amendments we receive after 21 February 2025.
- Make sure you submit all your entries by 21 February 2025 for the following exams which take place before the main timetabled exam series:
 - Cambridge IGCSE ICT (0417/21, 22, 31, 32)
 - Cambridge IGCSE (9–1) ICT (0983/21, 22, 31, 32)
 - Cambridge International AS & A Level Information Technology (9626/02, 04).

If you do not submit all your entries by 21 February 2025 for these components we may not be able to send you the materials you need to conduct the exams.

- The application deadline for access arrangements is 21 February 2025.
- Securely store any early question papers and instructions you receive until the relevant exam. Check that you have all the materials you need for these exams. Contact us immediately using:
 - Before the Exams – Form 2 if you are missing any of the packets on the despatch note
 - Before the Exams – Form 3 if any question paper packets have been damaged or opened in transit
 - Exam Day – Form 11 if any question paper packets are opened in error.

Store the packets securely and do not open them. If you have not received these materials one week before the timetabled exam, contact us immediately.

- For the following syllabuses, you should pass the question papers to the candidates as soon as you have accessed them from the School Support Hub or Digital File Despatch:

Important information

You will submit work for Art & Design (0400, 0989, 6090 and 9479) via Submit for Assessment. You will no longer be able to submit hardcopy work for Art & Design. Return of Art and Design Work: Coursework and Moderation – Form 5 is no longer available to use. Check the samples database for the submission and completion deadlines for Art & Design.

Other activities to think about in April

Our Cambridge office is closed from 18 to 21 April 2025.

June 2025 series

- Make sure each piece of hardcopy coursework in your internally assessed sample is clearly identified with your centre number, the candidate number, the syllabus and component. You can use the 'Coursework identification labels' we send in your pre-exam despatch. You can also download them from www.cambridgeinternational.org/forms (Coursework and Moderation – Label 3).
- Keep test cards and instructions for teachers/examiners for speaking tests in a secure place until the end of the speaking test window shown in the timetable.
- In early April we will despatch your question papers. Check you have all the question paper packets you need. Contact us immediately using:
 - Before the Exams – Form 2 if you are missing any of the packets on the despatch note
 - Before the Exams – Form 3 if any question paper packets have been damaged or opened in transit
 - Exam Day – Form 11 if any question paper packets are opened in error.

Store the packets securely and do not open them. If you have not received these materials one week before the timetabled exam, contact us immediately.

- Check that you have enough exam stationery. Details of the items you need for each exam are in the additional exam materials list, available at www.cambridgeinternational.org/beforetheexams
- You have a one-day window to conduct practical tests for:
 - Cambridge IGCSE ICT (0417)
 - Cambridge IGCSE (9–1) ICT (0983)
 - Cambridge International AS & A Level Information Technology (9626)
 - Cambridge International AS & A Level Computer Science (9618).

Please see the June 2025 timetable for details.

The data files for each practical test will be available to download three calendar days before the test from Digital File Despatch.

- You have a one-day window to conduct practical tests for:
 - Cambridge IGCSE ICT (0417)
 - Cambridge IGCSE (9–1) ICT (0983/02, 03)
 - Cambridge International AS & A Level Information Technology (9626)
 - Cambridge International AS & A Level Computer Science (9618).

Please see the November 2025 timetable for details. The data files for each practical test will be available to download three calendar days before the test from Digital File Despatch.

- A Data files for Cambridge Associates will be available five calendar days before the test to allow time to distribute the files to Associate Centres. We will provide detailed instructions about running these tests in the Cambridge Exams Officer eNewsletter.
- Collect and keep all unused question papers, answer booklets and any other confidential exam material in a secure place until at least 24 hours after the end of the exam or Key Time, whichever is later. After this time you can dispose of the unused question papers or you can return them to candidates/centre staff if the Head of Centre agrees.
- Keep test cards and instructions for teachers/examiners for speaking tests in a secure place until the end of the speaking test window shown in the timetable.
- Send your scripts to us as soon as each exam has finished. If this is not possible you must send us all the scripts you have within the next five working days. Check the contents of the script packet against the bar-coded script packet label to make sure they match. The script packet must contain a script for each candidate who is ticked as present on the attendance register, and the scripts should be in candidate number order with the attendance register on top. Do not include any other documents in your script packets.
- We must receive special consideration applications within seven days of the last exam of the syllabus affected.

November 2025 series

- From now until the release of results, we may contact you with questions about the exams of particular candidates. Check your emails regularly and make sure you, or another member of staff, are available to answer any urgent queries. If we cannot contact you or resolve the problem before results are released we may have to issue 'NO RESULT' or 'PENDING' outcomes. If your contact details have changed please let us know immediately.

June 2026 series

- If you plan to make entries for the June 2026 series please start planning now to meet the January deadline for candidates requiring modified question papers, and the February deadline for all other entries.
