

Privacy Policy Information Sheet

Cambridge: Trainer Recruitment

Dear candidate

We are inviting you to apply for the role of trainer for Cambridge. Please take time to read this information before deciding whether you would like to continue with your application.

What is involved?

There are 3 stages to the application process:

- Stage 1 - completion of the application form including text and video questions
- Stage 2 - attendance at a two-day face-to-face selection event
- Stage 3 - completion of the accreditation pathway

For more information on the overall trainer selection process, please see the accompanying document Guide to the trainer selection procedure

Will my responses be kept confidential?

All responses collected as part of this application process will be kept strictly confidential. They will only be accessed by a select number of Cambridge staff and consultants for the purposes of rating them and deciding whether you will proceed to the next stage of the application process. No information or interviews will be made public or used for any other purpose.

What data are we capturing and what will happen to the data?

The data we collect will be stored and analysed in compliance with the UK Data Protection Act (2018) and the General Data Protection Regulation and any subsequent legislation and destroyed when no longer required.

Please note that you are free to withdraw from the application process at any point.

We use a third-party supplier to facilitate our online pre-recorded interviews (VidCruiter, who are based in Canada). In order to provide the service, VidCruiter may need to transfer your information to Canada. If they do, we ensure your information is legally protected in compliance with data protection legislation.

If you have questions about this process, or wish to receive a digital copy of this information, please contact:

The Trainer Quality Team using info@cambridgeinternational.org