Become a Cambridge trainer

Cambridge is growing. We are looking for experienced practitioners to join our team of trainers to run our syllabus-specific and resources training.

If you are a qualified teacher with experience of teaching Cambridge qualifications/curricula, we are looking for people like you to become teacher-trainers.
Our next Trainer Selection Events will take place in:

Lagos, Nigeria on 28 and 29 April 2027

Note: Limited support with travel and accommodation costs will be provided to applicants.*

For your application to be considered you should:

- Live or teach in Nigeria, Ghana, Sierra Leone, Cameroon, Gambia or Ivory Coast
- Be teaching in a registered Cambridge School
- Have a minimum of 4 years' teaching the Cambridge syllabus or curriculum you are applying for
- Have a good understanding of Cambridge teaching and learning approaches
- Have depth and confidence in your subject knowledge and understanding
- Have attended Cambridge training
- Ideally have experience as a Cambridge examiner in your subject area
- Have an ongoing commitment to developing your professional practice
- Be able to connect with people from a wide range of backgrounds.

Benefits for the trainer's employer

- Invigorate teaching and reflective practice
- Supporting professional development
- Bring new skills into the team

Benefits for trainers

- Demonstrate your commitment to CPD
- Show evidence of supporting other teachers
- Deepen your subject expertise
- Develop your leadership skills
- Boost career/professional profile.

Cambridge will offer:

- Support towards becoming an accredited Cambridge trainer
- The opportunity to develop your skills as a trainer with the world's largest provider of international education programmes and qualifications for 3- to 19-year-olds
- Continuing professional development opportunities
- Flexible roles that you can fit around your other commitments
- An attractive fee plus expenses for each workshop that you run.
