Introduction

Most questions are marked holistically using levels of response mark schemes. The marks awarded for an answer are usually based on a judgement of the overall quality of the response, rather than on awarding marks for specific points and accumulating a total mark by adding points.

Inevitably, the mark scheme cannot cover all responses that candidates may make for all of the questions. In some cases candidates may make very strong responses which the mark scheme has not predicted. These answers should nevertheless be credited according to their quality.

Levels of response

For answers marked by levels of response, the following is intended to describe the quality of the response required (level of skill that should be demonstrated) for the award of marks at different points in the mark range for the question.

In the levels of response mark scheme positive achievement is being rewarded.

For answers marked by levels of response:

- a. Marking grids describe the top of each level.
- b. To determine the level – start at the highest level and work down until you reach the level that matches the answer.
- c. To determine the mark within the level, consider the following:

Descriptor	Award mark
Consistently meets the criteria for this level	At top of level
Meets the criteria but with some slight inconsistency	Above middle and either below top of level or at middle of level (depending on number of marks available)
Just enough achievement on balance for this level	Above bottom and either below middle of level or at middle of level (depending on number of marks available)
On the borderline of this level and the one below	At bottom of level

Mark scheme

All of the questions are based on Sources which are available to candidates as an Insert to the examination paper. It is therefore very important to study this material prior to marking to become familiar with the context of the questions.

Question	Answer	Marks
1(a)	Candidates may identify one of the following from Source 1: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The number of people travelling by air is growing/increasing/going up.</li> </ul> 1 mark should be awarded for the identification of the above. Further guidance – note that the only acceptable answer is listed above. However, candidates may use their own words. Numerical data is not needed – a simple identification/brief description of the trend is all that is required.	1
1(b)	Candidates may identify the following causes of the change in the number of international passengers from Source 2: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• technological change</li> <li>• larger ships</li> <li>• more fuel-efficient ships</li> <li>• people becoming richer/can afford to travel</li> <li>• people have higher levels of education</li> <li>• media/internet have increased awareness of other cultures/environments</li> <li>• people more interested in international travel/holidays</li> </ul> 1 mark should be awarded for each correctly identified cause. Further guidance – note that the only acceptable answers are listed above. However, candidates may use their own words.	2

1(c)	Indicative content Candidates may identify one of the following causes of the change in the number of international passengers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• technological change</li> <li>• larger ships</li> <li>• more fuel-efficient ships</li> <li>• people becoming richer</li> <li>• people have higher levels of education</li> <li>• media/internet</li> <li>• people more interested in international travel/holidays/increased awareness of other cultures/environments</li> </ul> Candidates may give the following reasons, any of which could be used, to justify their choice: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• degree of impact of the number of international passengers</li> <li>• degree of impact on individuals/countries/world</li> <li>• number of people/groups/countries affected</li> <li>• promoting and increasing frequency of travel</li> <li>• impact of one cause upon another cause/s</li> <li>• other reasonable response</li> </ul> Further guidance – candidates are most likely to discuss ‘causes’ from the Source as listed above. However, the assessment is focused mainly upon their reasoning/justification, and therefore additional causes should be credited. The following levels of response should be used to award marks. Level 3 (3 marks) Good response Clearly reasoned explanation explicitly linked to a cause with one developed point or three relevant but undeveloped points. Level 2 (2 marks) Reasonable response Some explanation with two (or more) undeveloped points. The link between the explanation and a cause may be unclear at times. Level 1 (1 mark) Limited response Limited explanation. Explanation is not linked to a cause explicitly. Level 0 (0 marks) No relevant response or creditworthy material.	3

Question	Answer	Marks
1(d)	Indicative content Candidates are likely to identify the following consequences which can be explained as both global and local: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• environmental, e.g. increased pollution and resource depletion</li> <li>• economic, e.g. new employment opportunities and international trade</li> <li>• social, e.g. different patterns of tourism and opening of educational opportunities abroad</li> <li>• cultural, e.g. ethnic intermarriage and growth of a globalised mass culture</li> <li>• political, e.g. need for international laws and control of migration</li> </ul> Three marks are available for the explanation of each consequence. A total of six marks (3 marks + 3 marks) are therefore available for the question as a whole. Further guidance – candidates may make use of information from Sources 3 and 4, and this should be given credit where appropriate. The following levels of response should be used to award marks. Level 3 (3 marks) Good response A clear and full explanation of the consequence explicitly related to the context – global or local. Level 2 (2 marks) Reasonable response A basic or partial explanation of the consequence generally related to the context – global or local. Level 1 (1 mark) Limited response An identification of a consequence with limited or no explanation related to the context – global or local. Level 0 (0 marks) No relevant response or creditworthy material.	6

Question	Answer	Marks
2(a)	Indicative content Candidates are likely to discuss the following evaluative points relating to Source 3: Strengths: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• some factual evidence is used/referred to generally</li> <li>• there is some cited evidence from the UN</li> <li>• several different types of evidence are used – opinion, research, personal experience</li> <li>• the evidence is generally relevant</li> <li>• the evidence is related clearly and explicitly to the argument</li> <li>• the evidence is used forcefully in a strongly worded argument</li> <li>• uses many examples</li> <li>• language used to present evidence is positive and enthusiastic</li> <li>• other reasonable response</li> </ul> Weaknesses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• research evidence is partially cited – the date, title, author and source are not fully clear</li> <li>• level of expertise of the author is not clear and only asserted – may have poor knowledge claims in practice</li> <li>• method of research of source/citation is unclear</li> <li>• there is no clear, specific statistical/numerical evidence</li> <li>• the evidence is not easy to verify/check from the information provided</li> <li>• too much reliance on opinion</li> <li>• evidence may be out of date</li> <li>• personal testimony/anecdote/values may not apply to other places/countries etc.</li> <li>• the evidence may be presented in a biased way (self interest from the point of view of a tourist industry professional)</li> <li>• use of examples is anecdotal</li> <li>• language used to support evidence is exaggerated</li> <li>• other reasonable response</li> </ul> The following levels of response should be used to award marks. Level 3 (5–6 marks) Good response Clearly reasoned, credible and structured evaluation; two (or more) developed points clearly linked to the issue, with some other undeveloped points; or a wide range (four or more) of undeveloped points. Evaluation is clearly focused on the evidence, its strengths and/or weaknesses, and the way it is used to support the claim. A convincing overall assessment or conclusion is reached.	6

For example: It is an opinion that 'everyone should visit the castle' because this is Miguel's personal point of view, but others like Donna may disagree. Award one mark for a response that demonstrates some understanding of an opinion. For example: It is an opinion that 'everyone should visit the castle' because this is Miguel's personal point of view.	3
