Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.
Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Question 1

This question tests Reading Objectives R1 to R3 (15 marks):

R1 demonstrate understanding of explicit meanings
R2 demonstrate understanding of implicit meanings and attitudes
R3 analyse, evaluate and develop facts, ideas and opinions and writing assessment objectives W1 to W4 (5 marks):

W1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
W2 organise facts, ideas and opinions
W3 use a range of appropriate vocabulary
W4 use register appropriate to audience and context.
You are the jumpmaster delivering a talk to a new group of skydiving students to prepare them for their first jump.

Write the words of your talk.

In your talk you should explain:
- what the students will do on their first jump and why
- the experience of fear and how to overcome it
- the rewards of skydiving and why they will want to repeat the experience.

Base your talk on what you have read in Passage A, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your talk: ‘Welcome everyone. Now listen carefully ... ’

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

Use the Marking Criteria for Question 1 (Table A, Reading and Table B Writing)

Notes on task

Candidates should select ideas from the passage (see below) and develop them relevantly, supporting what they write with details from the passage and judging the appropriate register for the genre which is a talk to a new group of skydiving students to prepare them for their first jump. Look for a clear and balanced response which covers the three areas of the question, is well sequenced, and is in the candidate’s own words.

Annotate A1 for references to what the students will do on their first jump and why
Annotate A2 for references to the experience of fear and how to overcome it
Annotate A3 for references to the rewards of skydiving and why they will want to repeat the experience.

Responses might use the following ideas:

A1: What the students will do on their first jump and why
- will carry a parachute
- jump one at a time/wait for your turn to jump
- crawl out of the aeroplane door
- hold on to the wing strut
- obey commands to jump/let go
- correct position
- free-fall
- parachute opens (by itself)

Marking Criteria for Question 1

Table A, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

|               | Developed ideas are sustained and well related to the passage. |
|               | A wide range of ideas is applied. |
|               | There is supporting detail throughout, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. |
|               | All three bullets are well covered. |
|               | A consistent and convincing voice is used. |

| Band 5: 10–12 | The response demonstrates a competent reading of the passage. |
|               | A good range of ideas is evident. |
|               | Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. |
|               | There is frequent, helpful supporting detail, contributing to a clear sense of purpose. |
|               | All three bullets are covered. |
|               | An appropriate voice is used. |

| Band 4: 7–9 | The passage has been read reasonably well. |
|            | A range of straightforward ideas is offered. |
|            | Opportunities for development are rarely taken. |
|            | Supporting detail is present but there may be some mechanical use of the passage. |
|            | There is uneven focus on the bullets. |
|            | The voice is plain. |

| Band 3: 4–6 | There is some evidence of general understanding of the main ideas, although the response may be thin or in places lack focus on the passage or the question. |
|            | Some brief, straightforward reference to the passage is made. |
|            | There may be some reliance on lifting from the text. |
|            | One of the bullets may not be addressed. |
|            | The voice might be inappropriate. |

| Band 2: 1–3 | The response is either very general, with little reference to the passage, or a reproduction of sections of the original. |
|            | Content is either insubstantial or unselective. |
|            | There is little realisation of the need to modify material from the passage. |

| Band 1: 0 | There is very little or no relevance to the question or to the passage. |

(a) what the narrator sees as the woman makes her first jump in paragraph 3, beginning ‘On that first jump …’

(b) the narrator’s first experience of parachuting in paragraph 5, beginning ‘Nevertheless, I didn’t go into …’

Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase selected is used effectively in the context.

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.

Notes on task

This question is marked for the ability to select powerful or unusual words and for an understanding of ways in which the language is effective. Expect responses to provide words/phrases (listed in the mark scheme on pages 7–8) that carry connotations additional to general meaning.

Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images. It is the quality of the analysis that attracts marks. Do not take marks off for inaccurate statements; simply ignore them.

The following notes are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections. They can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context and that have some validity. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar/syntax and punctuation devices. These must be additional to comments on vocabulary.

- what the narrator sees as the woman makes her first jump in paragraph 3, beginning ‘On that first jump …’

  The general effect is uncontrollable speed and that the jump is unattractive / undignified, but transforms into an image of beauty and elegance as the parachute opens.

  hurtle: a verb of violent motion suggestive of uncontrolled speed/danger/fear.

Marking Criteria for Question 2

Table A, Reading: Language analysis:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

| Band 6: 9–10 | • Wide ranging discussion of judiciously selected language with some high quality comments that add meaning and associations to words/phrases in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them.
• Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination.
• There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works. |
| Band 5: 7–8 | • Explanations are given of carefully selected words and phrases.
• Explanations of meanings within the context of the passage are secure and effects are identified in both parts of the question.
• Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them.
• There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works. |
| Band 4: 5–6 | • A satisfactory attempt is made to select appropriate words and phrases.
• The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic or very general.
• One half of the question may be better answered than the other. |
| Band 3: 3–4 | • The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well.
• The response may correctly identify linguistic devices but not explain why they are used.
• Explanations may be few, general, slight or only partially effective.
• They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words. |
| Band 2: 1–2 | • The choice of words is sparse or rarely relevant.
• Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin. |
| Band 1: 0 | • The response does not relate to the question.
• Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected. |
Question 3

This question tests reading assessment objectives R1, R2 and R5 and writing assessment objectives W2, W3 and W5:

R1 demonstrate understanding of explicit meanings
R2 demonstrate understanding of implicit meanings and attitudes
R5 select for specific purposes

W2 organise facts, ideas and opinions
W3 use a range of appropriate vocabulary
W5 accurate use of spelling, punctuation and grammar

</table>

You must use continuous writing (not note form) and use your own words as far as possible.

Your summary should not be more than 250 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

INDICATIVE READING CONTENT

Candidates may refer to any of the points below:

The job in the past:

1. Stunts took a long time to prepare
2. Stunt performers retired young/early
3. Negative physical effect/injuries/aches and pains
4. Fatalities/risk of death
5. Involved height
6. Dangerous driving
7. Fire was most dangerous stunt
8. Could experiment/make own decisions
9. Stunt team used to be part of the film set for weeks
10. Stunt performers made their own devices

How it has changed in the present:

11. Stunts replaced by special effects/CGI
12. Old stunts re-used/digitally spliced into films now (no longer unique)
13. Audiences expect the impossible/less easy to impress nowadays
14. Stunt performers only on set for few days
15. Stunt equipment is now provided
16. H&S rules not working/Job is more dangerous/less safe
Marking criteria for Question 3

Table A, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

| Band 5 13–15 | • A very effective response that demonstrates a thorough understanding of the requirements of the task.
| • Demonstrates understanding of a wide range of relevant ideas and is consistently well-focused.
| • Points are skilfully selected to demonstrate an overview. |
| Band 4 10–12 | • An effective response that demonstrates a competent understanding of the requirements of the task.
| • Demonstrates understanding of a good range of relevant ideas with a clear focus.
| • Points are carefully selected, and there is some evidence of an overview. |
| Band 3 7–9 | • A partially effective response that demonstrates a reasonable understanding of the requirements of the task.
| • Demonstrates understanding of ideas and is mostly focused.
| • Some evidence of selection of relevant ideas, but may include excess material. |
| Band 2 4–6 | • A basic response that demonstrates some understanding of the requirements of the task.
| • Demonstrates general understanding of some relevant ideas.
| • There may be some indiscriminate selection of ideas. |
| Band 1 1–3 | • A response that demonstrates a limited understanding of the task.
| • The response may be a simple list of unconnected ideas.
| • There is limited evidence of selection. |
| Band 0 0 | • No creditable content. |

Notes

- Overview demonstrates a candidate’s ability to summarise carefully selected key points in relation to the focus of the question rather than to paraphrase the passage. Candidates should give a focused response, drawing ideas from the passage provided; they should demonstrate clear understanding of both explicit and implicit meanings.
Table B, Writing:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

| Band 3 4–5 | A relevant response that is expressed clearly, fluently and mostly with concision. |
| Band 2 2–3 | A relevant response that is generally expressed clearly, with some evidence of concision. |
| Band 1 1   | A relevant response that lacks clarity and concision. |
| Band 0 0   | No creditable content. |

• The response is well organised.
• The response is in the candidate’s own words (where appropriate), using a range of well-chosen vocabulary which clarifies meaning.
• Spelling, punctuation and grammar are almost always accurate.
• There may be some lapses in organisation.
• The response is mainly expressed in the candidate’s own words (where appropriate), but there may be reliance on the words of the passage.
• There may be errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar but they do not impede communication.
• There may be excessively long explanations or the response may be very brief.
• The response may include lifted sections.
• Frequent errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar, which may occasionally impede communication.

Notes

Mark holistically for writing using the mark grid above, using a ‘best fit’ approach.
