

Why do Admissions Officers rate Cambridge so highly?

We asked some of the world's top universities, including Yale and Harvard, to tell us what they think about Cambridge qualifications.

"Cambridge exams provide structure to learn and understand complex subjects."
United States

"Cambridge students have achieved a level of mastery that is atypical of school graduates [here]."
United States

"Cambridge students attack university work with confidence."
United Kingdom

"Students can communicate effectively...
...carry out research...
...and apply knowledge to real life situations."
United States

"These well-rounded qualifications encourage independent skills that students need at university."
United Kingdom

"Cambridge students are strong in critical thinking and writing...
...and are intellectually curious."
United States

"Cambridge students are very prepared and knowledgeable on their subjects...
...and tend to be more confident at presenting and speaking analytically."
United Kingdom

"Research and analytical thinking done by Cambridge students...
...is a good foundation...
...to succeed in higher education."
Australia

Visit www.cambridgeinternational.org/recognition to find out where your Cambridge qualifications can take you

We wanted to find out what university admissions staff around the world look for when selecting candidates. We also wanted to get their views about Cambridge programmes and qualifications, in particular how well they feel they prepare students for university study. Source: Higher Education Admission Officers Survey, May 2022.